The Kansas Soldiers' Home is located five miles East of Dodge City, Kansas. The setting is village like with beautiful tree lined streets, creating a serene and relaxing setting for the residents and visitors.

The Home is a State operated facility on the grounds of Old Fort Dodge, an active military post from 1865-1882. The Fort was deeded to the State of Kansas in 1889 for conversion to a Soldiers' Home. The first resident arrived in 1890.

Basic Eligibility Requirements

Veterans must be discharged from Active Federal Service. Such discharge shall have been under conditions other than dishonorable. Proper documentation of military service is required prior to admission.

The Application Process

The completion of an application including a physician's medical examination, functional capacity assessment, and verification of military service are required
