"Operation Recognition" for WWII and Korean Conflict Veterans

About the Program	Thousands of young men and women across this country left the comforts of home and hearth to serve gallantly in the armed forces during WWII and Korean Conflict. Their sacrifice ensured our freedom, built our country into a superpower, and shaped the entire course of history throughout the world. Many of these veterans were not able to finish high school for various reasons, but led productive lives and built our communities over their lifetime. In recognition of their outstanding contribution, The Kansas Commission on Veterans' Affairs, through a program called "Operation Recognition" for WWII and Korean Conflict Veterans, is working with schools, cities, and service organizations to award Honorary high school diplomas to qualifying WWII and Korean Conflict veterans. This is a small, overdue, gesture of our society's gratitude for the sacrifice these individuals made in the name of freedom.
