

Post-9/11 (Chapter 33)

Beginning August 1, 2009.

Honorably discharged veteran who served at least 90 aggregate days or 30 days and discharged with a service-connected disability after 09/10/01.

Up to $2,000 for license or certification test reimbursement.

Pays up to the public in-state undergraduate tuition and fees at public institutions. Pays at private schools are the annual amounts listed below.

2021 Academic Year (08/01/21-07/31/22) $26,042.81

If your release from active duty was before January 1, 2013, there is a 15-year time limitation for use of benefits. For individuals whose last discharge date is on or after January 1, 2013, the time limitation has been removed.

Entitlement may be transferred to dependents only during active duty.

Basic Housing Allowance is based on zip code of educational institution. BAH is E-5 with dependents rate.

Colleges and universities may apply to VA to participate in Yellow Ribbon Program to assist in tuition payment.

Yellow Ribbon Program: an institution can contribute up to 50% of tuition expenses over the annual cap for private and the difference of out of state to in-state tuition for public. VA will match the same amount as the institution. Only individuals entitled to the maximum benefit rate (based on service requirements) may receive this funding.

Where will Your path
lead?

Marine Gunnery Sergeant John David Fry Scholarship amends the Post-9/11 GI Bill® (Chapter 33) to include the children and spouses of service members who die in the line of duty after Sept. 10, 2001. The benefit is effective August 1, 2009; the same day the Post-9/11 GI Bill® takes effect. Eligible spouses and children attending school may receive up to the highest public, in-state undergraduate tuition and fees, plus a monthly living stipend and book allowance under this program. Eligible dependents must relinquish benefits for DIC (Chapter 35).

Transfer of Entitlement of Post-9/11 (Chapter 33)

- Must apply for eligibility from DoD before separation from Armed Forces service
- Entitlement may be divided among dependents
- Spouse may use entitlement immediately upon date of eligibility
- Children must use entitlement between ages 18 and 23
- Dependents cannot be added after separation date. A family member must be enrolled in the Defense Eligibility Enrollment Reporting System (DEERS) and be eligible for benefits at the time of transfer to receive transferred educational benefits

Apprenticeship Training Programs:

This is on-the-job training coupled with theoretical related instruction. Occupations are clearly identified and commonly recognized throughout an industry, such as carpenter, plumber, and electrician.

On-the-Job Training Programs:

Program that will allow veterans, eligible dependents, National Guard members, and selected reservists to utilize their educational benefits from the Department of Veterans' Affairs in order to acquire a skill or trade while actually performing a job and earning wages.

Benefits to Employers

Veterans have demonstrated the aptitude to be trained in a structured environment.

Veterans typically are experienced, mature, and disciplined individuals with positive work habits.

Veterans have proven employment histories, learn quickly, are highly motivated and follow instructions well.

The monetary benefits that the veteran receives from the Department of Veterans Affairs should motivate the veteran to be loyal and perform at a higher level which will enhance the effectiveness of the business.

High School Diplomas

Education benefits are available for dependents of veterans who died or are permanently and totally disabled as the result of a service-connected disability.

Chapter 35 only education benefits are available when the dependent turns eighteen.

Benefits may be earned while in an approved high school diploma program.
